

February 16, 2008

Dear Editor Chronicle Telegram:

I am amazed, if not shocked, by the recent hullabaloo surrounding the presence of the TV Guide format. Is this really important? Considering the lack of publicity or acknowledgement of something as significant as a Mayoral race, I am disappointed that this is what our local journalists consider newsworthy. I personally attempted to write letters in support of one of the candidates on three separate occasions, yet none of those letters were published. Why? I also know of several other citizens of Elyria who have repeatedly attempted to address local concerns through the opinion page of the Chronicle, to no avail. Why? With the current status of our city I feel we can utilize our energy and time much more efficiently. I implore all citizens to visit ElyriaScoop.com and voice your opinion, especially if the chronicle chooses not to publish you. He is interested in your needs, your feelings, your comments. After all, Elyria is OUR city.

Michele Flanagan